Pune Dist. Central Co-op Bank Ltd. .. Petitioner

versus

Mr.C.J. Sawant, Sr.Counsel with V.C. Ghosalkar for the petitioner.

Mr.Y.S. Jehagirdar, Sr.Counsel with Mrs.Deshpande for the respondent.

CORAM : D.G. KARNIK, J

DATED : 30th August 2004

P.C:-

1. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner fairly states that the requirement of the suit premises cannot be doubted. However, he prays for time to vacate stating that the petitioner is a bank with 6000

Account holders and the time is required for making arrangements for either closing their accounts or shifting the branch elsewhere.

3. The learned counsel for the respondent has no objection for grant of a reasonable time. The next academic year of the respondent institution would begin in June 2005 when the fresh batch of students would be admitted. Hence, petitioner is granted time to vacate the suit premises till 31st May 2005 subject to the petitioner filing an undertaking in the usual form within a period of four weeks.

4. Subject to this modification, petition is rejected.
